Y<sup>e</sup> Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons, in Parliament Assembled, having Deep Sense of Your Majesty's Great Care of our Well-fare and Preservation, and being desirous to Express the same, by Supplying Your Majesty's Occasions, for Defence of this Your Kingdom, in the most Chearful manner have Unanimously Resolved to Give and Grant unto Your Majesty, the Rates, Taxes and Assessments following, to be Raised and Levied

Commissioners, as aforesaid, shall be paid to the said respective Collectors of His Majesty's Revenue, at, and on the said Days and Places; which said Collectors shall, and are hereby required to give Receipts or Acquittances in Writing or Print, for the several Summs so by them Received, immediately on the Receipt of the said several Summs without Fee or other Reward, and that such Receipts or Acquittances, shall be sufficient Discharges for so much of the said Tax.

And be it further Enacted, That in Default of such Payment, at the Days and Places aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to, and for the said respective Collectors of His Majesty's Revenue, with the Assistance of the Constable of the respective Parish or Parishes, who are hereby required and commanded to be Aiding and Assisting as often as there shall be occasion to Levy by Distress the several Summs charged and payable out of the several Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tythes and Improvements in this Kingdom, or so much thereof as shall not be paid at the said Days and Places appointed, and that the said Distress and Distresses so to be taken for the said Tax, shall be Impounded as Distresses for Rent between Landlord and Tenant, and not otherwise, and shall and may be Disposed of, and Sold as is usual in cases of Distress, rendering the Over-plus to the Owner; and that where sufficient Distress cannot otherwise be had, it shall and may be lawful to, and for the said Collectors, in the presence of the Constable of the Parish, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of Two or more of the said Commissioners of the respective Counties or Cities, to Break open any House or Houses, in the Day time, to Distrain for the said Tax.

And be it further Enacted, That no Fee, Reward, or other Gratification whatsoever shall be paid, demanded or given to the said Collectors, or any other person or persons whatsoever, for, or on account of Receiving, Collecting or Distraining for the said Tax.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Tenants of all Houses, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tyths and Impropriations in this Kingdom, Rated towards the said Tax, shall pay such Summ or Summs as are, or shall be so Rated or Charged thereon, and may deduct so much out of the Rent reserved and payable by them to their Landlords, as the proportion of the said Tax payable by their several Landlords, immediate and immediate, shall amount unto; and that the said Tenants paying the said Landlords Proportion of the said Tax, shall be a full Discharge to the said Tenants for so much of their Rent, notwithstanding any Contract or Covenant to the contrary.

And for Ascertainning the Proportion of the said Tax, between the said Landlords and Tenants,

Be it further Enacted, That the Chief Landlord or Proprietor of the said several Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments Tyths and Impropriations, shall be charged with, and pay One full half or Moiety of the said Tax or Rate, charged on the said respective Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tyths and Impropriations : And that the several Tenements mediate and immediate, according to their respective Interests, do and shall pay the other Half or Moyety thereof; and that in the Distribution or Apportioning the said Half or Moyety of the said Tax among the said Tenants mediate and immediate, each mediate Tenant be accounted and pay as a Landlord with regard to his Tenant or Tenants.

Provided always, That if the said Moyety or Proportion of the said Rate or Tax so charged on the said Chief Landlord, do exceed the Moyety of his her or their Clear Rent out of the said Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tyths or Impropriations, that then such Landlord shall pay only a Moyety of such clear Rent, and the residue, or so much as the said Rate or Tax charged on the said Landlord as aforesaid, shall exceed the Moyety of his, her or their clear Rent as aforesaid, shall be paid by and charged on the said Tenants mediate and immediate.

And be it also Enacted, That all and every person and persons having Mortgages, Rentcharges, Dowers, Joyntures, Annuities, or other Estates for Life in, or issuing out of any of the said Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tyths or Impropriations, whereon no Rent is reserved, shall be Deemed, Charged and Rated as chief Landlord or Proprietor, and allow and pay a proportion of the said Tax according to his, her or their Interest or Benefit out of the said Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tyths or Impropriations; and that the greater Number of the said Commissioners present, not under Threë in each Barony, Barony, Territory, Division, Ward or Parish, shall have full Power to hear and finally to Determine on the construction of this Act, what part or proportion of the said Tax shall be paid by or charged on such Mortgages, Tenants in Dower or other Tenants for Life or Incumbrances aforesaid; and likewise the Apportioning or Dividing the said Moety of the said Tax, between the said several Tenants mediate and immediate, and all other Differences arising upon the Construction, or in the Execution of this Act.

Provided always, That none of the said Commissioners shall have a Vote in his own Case, but if any controverſie arise, touching the proportion of the said Tax, to be paid by, or charged on him, shall withdraw during the Debate of such Controverſie, until it be determined by the rest of the Commissioners then present; and in default thereof, that the said Commissioners then present shall have Power, and are hereby required to Impose such Fine or Fines, not exceeding Twenty pounds Sterling, as to them shall seem meet upon such Commissioners so refusing to withdraw, and to cause the same to be Levied and paid as the several Rates and Assessments charged and made pursuant to this Act, are to be Levied and paid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Proprietor or Farmer of any Tyths in this Kingdom, shall neglect, or omit to pay the rate or proportion of the said Tax, charged on the said Tyths, at the time and place before mentioned, that it shall and may be lawful to, and for the said Collectors, as aforesaid, to Distrain and Seize the said Tyths;

Tyths, and dispose thereof as is usual in case of other Distresses, and in case so much of the said Tyths cannot be found to be Distrained or Seized, as shall be sufficient to answer the said Tax, or charge due thereout, and in case where there shall not be a sufficient Distress upon any of the said Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to Answer the said charge or Tax due thereout; that then upon Affidavit made thereof, the said several Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tyths and Improvements shall, and may by Process out of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, be Seized into His Majesty's hands, as in case of Arrears of Crown-Rent, or Quit-Rent, and there detained until out of the Profits thereof, the said Tax due thereout be paid.

Provided always, That no poor Cottier, or poor Day-Labourer shall be charged with, or pay any part of the said Tax, but that the same shall be wholly allowed to him by his immediate Land-lord in his Rent, or be paid by his said Land-lord.

And for the careful Writing and Ingrossing the said Rates and Assessments in due time.

Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners Clerks who shall respectively perform the same, shall by Warrant under Three or more of the said Commissioners hands, have and receive from the said respective Collectors, Two pence in the pound, for all such Sums of Money as shall respectively be Rated, Assessed and Charged in such Assessments pursuant to this Act; which said Collectors are hereby appointed to pay the same accordingly.

And
